WHERE IS THE MALDIVES?

The Maldives lie 370 miles southwest of Sri Lanka. Scattered across the equator in the middle of the Indian Ocean, the gem-like islands of the Maldives depict the rare vision of a tropical paradise. Palm fringed islands with sparkling white beaches, turquoise lagoons, crystal clear warm waters and coral reefs teeming with abundant varieties of marine flora and fauna, fascinates visitors as it has for thousands of years. The 1200 islands consist of 19 atoll formations spreading over an area of 500 miles. The Maldives are known for their enchanted underwater world. The translation of the word "Maldives" means "Realm of the thousand islands".

ARRIVAL & BOARDING

It is recommended to fly into the Male International Airport (MLE) Saturday, the day before your charter starts. Male is located on Hulhule Island. The international airlines that service the Maldives are Singapore Air (4 hours from Singapore to Male), Dubai on Emirates Airline (4 hours from Dubai to Male), Delta and Qatar Airlines. The airport is a ten-minute boat ride from the capital, Male. If you arrive Sunday afternoon, the day of your charter, you are to meet at 4 pm at the airport coffee shop tables directly outside of the arrival doors. You will then be transported to the Maldives Aggressor at 4 p.m. by water taxi. If you fly in prior to Sunday, you should meet at this area no later than 4 p.m. for transfer. The agent will have a sign that says "Maldives Aggressor". Please notify the Aggressor office of your arrival time and/or hotel reservations 90 days prior to traveling. The Maldives Aggressor anchors in Male lagoon, which is 15 minutes from the airport. If you arrive late Sunday evening a special pick-up can be arranged. If you miss your flight Sunday and must arrive Monday, arrangements can be made to get you to the yacht. (A charge will apply)
